‘Skin Remedies — Bush Salve’

By Gabriel Maralngurra

Clan: Ngainbali Language: Kurwinjku

The artist has depicted a woman collecting materials to treat skin ailments. In her hand is the root of the milkwood tree. The root is crushed up and applied to the skin like a salve. Behind the woman are the leaves of the Paperbark tree. The leaves are boiled up and the residue is also applied to the skin for various conditions.
